

OGC Has Reviewed

ESPIONAGE

The following offenses are punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000, or imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both:

1. Obtaining information concerning the national defense, with intent or reason to believe that the information is to be used to injure the United States or to assist any foreign nation;

2. Making copies, notes, sketches or photographs of anything connected with national defense, with intent or reason to believe that the information is to be used to injure the United States or to assist any foreign nation;

3. Transmitting defense information to any person not entitled to receive it, if there is reason to believe such information could be used to injure the United States or to assist any foreign nation;

4. Losing defense information and failing to report the loss immediately to your superior officer;

5. Conspiring or attempting to commit any one of the above offenses.

In time of war, the following offenses are punishable by death or by imprisonment of not more than thirty years:

1. Gathering or delivering defense information to any agent or representative of any foreign government.